EDUCATION AND AGRICULTURE.

No. 1181—Edn. 42-16-3, dated 7*th August* 1916.

The following memorandum regarding the qualifications for admission into the Lady Hardinge Medical College at Delhi, is published for general information :—

It is notified for the information of candidates intending to join the Lady Hardinge Medical College for Women at Delhi that the institution will be open to students on the 28th September 1916, and that lectures and classes will begin on the 2nd October. The College has been affiliated in the preliminary stages to the Punjab University, and will prepare students for the M. B. B. S. degree of that University. Candidates seeking admission should produce certificates of physical fitness to undergo a course of medical training as well as of good moral character. Preference will be given to students who have passed at least the Intermediate Arts or corresponding examination, but a certain number possessing the minimum general educational qualification of the Matriculation or equivalent standard will also be admitted. Students of the latter class will be required to undergo a separate course in English and Mathematics for which special arrangements have been made within the College itself, and their entire course will extend to seven, instead of the ordinary six years.

2. The institution possesses separate hostel accommodation for Hindus, Mahomedans, Sikhs and Christians (including Parsis and those accustomed to live in the European style). Boarding will be provided with due regard to caste and other considerations at moderate rates.

3. Forms of application for admission to the College, details as to scholarships and any further information required may be obtained from the Principal of the College (Raisina, Delhi).

No. 1459—I. & C. 11-16-3, dated 18*th August* 1916.

Government are pleased to direct that Rule 2 of the Rules published under Notification No. Fl. 277—B. 37-13-2, dated 22nd July 1914, for the grant of loans to Co-operative Societies from State Funds be modified as shown below :—

Existing Rule.

"All advances to a Society shall be free of interest for the first two years and will afterwards, subject to Rule 8 (1) bear interest at 5 per cent per annum.

The advances shall be repayable in not more than three annual instalments commencing after the lapse of two years after the grant of the advance."

Rule as modified.

"All advances to a Society shall be free of interest for the first two years and will afterwards, subject to Rule 8 (1) bear interest at 5 per cent per annum.

The advances shall be repayable in not more than three annual instalments commencing after the lapse of two years after the grant of the advance.

But the Registrar of Co-operative Societies may at his discretion prescribe a shorter period for repayment according to the circumstances of each case."

By Order,
P. G. D'SOUZA,
Secretary to Government,
Departments of Education and Agriculture.
